BIRMINGHAM INDIAN FILM FESTIVAL

17 JUNE - 4 JULY

CARY RAJINDER SAWHNEY

Welcome back to the festival, which this year has evolved into a hybrid festival. You can watch it in cinemas in London, Birmingham, and Manchester, or on your own sofa at home, via our digital site www.LoveLIFFatHome.com, that is accessible anywhere in the United Kingdom. Our talks and certain events are also accessible worldwide.

A big personal thanks to all our audiences who stayed with the festival last year and helped make it one of the few success stories in the film industry. This year's festival is dedicated to you with love.

Highlights of this year's festival include our inspiring Opening Night Gala WOMB about one woman gender activist who incredibly walks the entire length of India to explore the experiences of other women in its billion plus population. See it at MAC Birmingham. We close the festival with a special screening of the rarely seen British Asian all-star film Flight - expect special guests for that one!

Our themed strands in this brochure cover online and cinema-based movie premieres and events. They start with our Young Rebel strand (which literally challenges all the stereotypes!) with UK premieres of a host of talented emerging filmmakers, showing young people's real-life challenges and experiences.

Dive deep into our Extra-Ordinary Lives strand with amazing dramas and documentaries from across South Asia. Films include Abhijaan, an inspiring biopic exploring the life of the late and great Bengali actor Soumitra Chatterjee; Black comedy Ashes On a Road Trip; and Aise Hee - an intimate portrait of the outdated obligations in a patriarchal society. Look out for selected online premieres too.

SEE FULL SCHEDULE ON OUR WEBSITE

We also introduce a new strand dedicated to ecology-related films, called Save The Planet, with some stirring features about lives affected by deforestation and rising sea levels, and how people are meeting the challenge.

We are expecting a host of special guests as usual and do check out our brilliant online In Conversations with Indian talent in June - where we will be joined by Bollywood Director Karan Johar, and rapidly rising talented actors Shruti Haasan and Janhvi Kapoor, as well as featuring some very informative online Q&As on all our films.

We are delighted to welcome back our many regular funders and partners; thanks to BFI Audience Fund and Birmingham City University, and to our many friends and supporters including Sampad - South Asian Arts & Heritage, Asian Business Chamber of Commerce, Consulate General of India in Birmingham, Film Hub Midlands and Film Birmingham. We're pleased to be working with new cinemas; Everyman Mailbox and Millennium Point. To support the ongoing Covid pandemic in India and other South Asian countries, we are asking our audiences to visit our donations page at LoveLIFFatHome.com and kindly help out if you can.

For cinemas, you can buy tickets via booking links on our website, or directly at partner cinemas. For online viewings, please follow the booking guidance on www.LoveLIFFatHome.com

Please remember that Covid safety regulations are strictly administered by all of our venue partners and you may be required to wear a mask throughout all cinema screenings. We look forward to seeing you in cinemas and online!

Warm regards,

Cary Rajinder Sawhney
Executive & Programming Director

IN CONVERSATION WITH AVTAR PANESAR

Behind the surface glamour of the film industry are the key industry professionals who dynamically make it all happen. We are delighted to celebrate and talk to one such British hero Avtar Panesar, who over the last thirty years has been a pioneer of the UK Asian Bollywood film & music scene and has gone on to be a leading light in one of India's biggest hit movie studios – Yash Raj Films.

Avtar talks about his childhood, arrival from Punjab to London's Southall in the 1970s and how his father's strong immigrant work ethic inspired him. Starting as a stockroom assistant with EMI India he climbed to management within the company promoting Indian music.

This soon took him into Hindi commercial cinema, where as a young man, his hard work and diligence caught the attention of movie moguls Yash and Aditya Chopra, who handpicked him to execute their vision to set up the company's international operations.

As success followed, Avtar then ascended to greater heights moving back to India at Yash Raj Studios, Mumbai to be dynamically involved with this legendary company's global expansion which now celebrates 50 years of movie-making.

IN CONVERSATION WITH PAM CULLEN

Pam Cullen at 97 years young, is a true legend, with an incredible career spanning over fifty years in the Indian film industry. In this very rare, frank and at times witty Interview Pam talks to author and producer Nasreen Munnī Kabir about her unique life and work. It starts in the 1940s, rebelling against her conservative English parents to join the 'Free India' movement and becoming involved with the nascent Indian High Commission and then the early National Film Development Corporation of India. Pam recounts her career experiences with the Indian independence leader V.K.Krishna Menon, setting up the UK's first Indian film screening after WW2. She later worked with Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and befriended the shy young Satyajit Ray on his early visits to London, rubbing shoulders with such luminaries as Charlie Chaplin and managing Raj Kapoor's press schedule in the golden age of cinema.

Filmmaker Sairam Sagiraju, together with Grammy award winning composer Ricky Kej and historian Vikram Sampath set out on a monumental journey to document the philosophies and musical lineage of the Bauls of Bengal. For centuries Bauls have passed on their traditions of inner knowledge and spirituality through song and music. Declared as an Intangible Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO, The Bauls of Bengal have kept their philosophies alive for over a 1000 years, but modern demands threaten their simple, enlightened lifestyles.

SAVE THE PLANET

A powerful, thought-provoking new strand of dramas and docs, that in different ways, reference rapid ecological change and Mother Nature as their backdrop - climate change and rising sea levels are two key factors impacting South Asia right now.

NONAJOLER KABBO (THE SALT IN OUR WATERS)

Bangla with English subtitles
Bangladesh, France 2020 | 106 Mins

*Dir: Rezwan Shahriar Sumit
With: Fazlur Rahman Babu,
Shatabdi Wadud, Titas Zia*

Co-produced by Spike Lee's company, this lavishly photographed film was born to be seen on the big screen! Set in the stunning, unlimited vistas of coastal Bangladesh we meet Rudro, a young artist, who after the death of his father, relocates to a remote beach village to find closure and practice his craftsmanship. At first he is welcomed by the traditional locals, but when the fish shoals they rely on suddenly disappear, Rudro's modern ideas are blamed. As a cyclone approaches, social and physical storms threaten Rudro's way of life.

SISTERS OF THE TREES

Hindi, Marwari with English subtitles
India, Argentina 2018 | 86 Mins

Dir: Camila Menéndez, Lucas Peñafort

Among the arid lands of Rajasthan, surrounded by marble mines lies the oasis-like village of Piplantri, where women are no longer worried about giving birth to a girl, who historically would have been seen as a burden. Since 2005, a small group of activists have changed society and now every time a girl is born in the village, the residents celebrate the occasion by planting 111 trees in her name. Sisters of the Trees is the intimate story of these brave women and the positive changes and challenges they face trying to raise their daughters for a better future, deeply connected to environmental conservation.

THANI THATUWEN PIYABANNA (FLYING WITH ONE WING)

Sinhala with English subtitles
Sri Lanka 2003 | 81 Mins

Dir: Asoka Handagama
With: Anoma Janadari, Gayani
Gisanthika, Mahendra Perera

A married man works as a mechanic in a small Sri Lankan town. His secret known to none but his wife, is that he is actually a woman. One day an accident causes his real gender to be discovered, setting off a chain of events that will change their lives forever. Asoka Handagama's subversive film, originally banned domestically satirises homophobia and sexual bigotry while serving as a brutal indictment of the sexual harassment experienced by working women in Sri Lanka.

This documentary feature, shot in stunning 4K, is filmed across the subcontinent, charting the giant rain system's path as it surges toward and gradually engulfs every region of India. It is a breathtaking cinematic journey into a terrain where nature, science, belief and wonder converge. It introduces us to a remarkable array of individuals whose lives are in different ways entwined with the phenomenon. For some, the great rains will be a time of bountiful sustenance, for others it will be a time of great hardship. All are caught in this timeless human drama. The outstanding score, composed by London's own Andrew T. MacKay, is based on the Malhar ragas and perfectly complements the multiple-award winning director's epic vision.

RUNWAY

Bangla with English subtitles
Bangladesh 2010 | 90 Mins

*Dir: Tareque Masud
With: Fall Haque, Rabeya Akter Moni,
Ali Ahsan*

Winner of a Cannes prize for his triumph The Clay Bird, this is the last offering from Tareque Masud who tragically died in an accident in 2011. Teenage Ruhul lives with his family in a small hut next to the runway of Dhaka international airport. His family struggle to make a living while he spends his days wandering under the shadow of the planes, aimless and frustrated in his futile efforts to find work. One day at a cyber-cafe he meets computer geek Arif (Ahsan) who introduces him to a group of other young men and what seems an inspiring new religious sect, but all is not what it seems and he quickly gets pulled into a world of violent revolutionary politics.

ONE CRAZY THING

English
UK 2016 | 94 Mins

Dir: Amit Gupta
With: Ray Panthaki, Daisy Bevan,
Dan Renton Skinner

This delightful charmer follows Jay, a former daytime TV star who is haunted by the sex tape that destroyed his life and turned his unknown actress girlfriend into an A-list Hollywood celebrity. As he cowers in obscurity managing his family's Indian restaurant, he meets his dream girl Hannah, a beautiful American music student who hates modern life, and above all, dishonesty. Jay must now confront the errors of his past, rather than hiding from his future. Filled with warmth, music and delicious Indian food, the film is also a celebration of modern London in all her glory. It features a winning performance from BAFTA Breakthrough Brit Ray Panthaki and a star-making turn from Daisy Bevan, the latest entrant from the revered Redgrave acting dynasty.

*Dir: Anjali Bhushan
With: Kira Banasinska, Wanda Novicka-
Kashikar, Wanda Kuras*

This inspirational tear-jerker documentary uncovers a little-known story of unimaginable humanity, generosity and kindness. Towards the end of WW2, the Polish ambassadorial team in Bombay, led by the determined heroine Kira Banasinska and supported by several Indian states, dispatched a convoy of food relief and other essentials, thousands of miles to help the Polish refugees in Soviet Siberian labour camps. The expedition however returned to India with 5,500 women and children in the supplies trucks. Thanks to Kira and the hospitality of Indians, the refugees were welcomed and given dedicated settlements in Maharashtra. Over 70 years later a number of now elderly Polish people return for the first time to India to see where they experienced the joys of childhood.

COURT

Marathi with English subtitles
India 2019 | 116 Mins

Dir: Chaitanya Tamhane
With: Vivek Gomber, Vira Sathidar, Geetanjali Kulkarni

Chaitanya Tamhane's tightly scripted and confidently directed second feature is set around a single court case in a Maharashtrian town. Within this seemingly simple courtroom drama, a subtle and fascinating exploration of the state of the nation India, westernised versus revisionist traditionalist values is uncovered. The outcome is increasingly unsettling, even dangerous, as the seeming stability and order of the British Raj based court system, is pitted against a changing India. An ageing, activist, folk singer is charged with inciting a sewerage worker to commit suicide by one of his 'inflammatory' songs. His defence lawyer, a westernised man defends the rights of the artist, while the female prosecutor states the singer, as the police have described him, is a threat to national security.
